2020 Recognition Award Nomination Form & Guidelines

Industry Person of the Year

This award is presented to an individual in recognition of excellence for research, development, education, marketing, manufacturing, or other fields, which are a part of an industry or institution that provides goods or services to the dairy industry. This person is a resident of the United States and may be an active dairy producer whose primary achievements are industry focused.

Dairy Producer(s) of the Year

This award is presented to individuals who are active dairy producers and whose primary source of income is derived from the dairy enterprise. Their dairy operation should excel in efficient production and the breeding of quality dairy animals. Progressive management practices and a history of achievement must be evident. Their involvement in the community, government activities, marketing organizations, World Dairy Expo and other aspects of the dairy industry will also be considered.

International Person of the Year

This award is presented to an individual in recognition for excellence in international research, development, education, marketing, manufacturing, or other fields, which are a part of an industry or institution that provides goods or services to the international dairy industry. This person has a primary residency outside of the United States whose achievements are internationally focused.

Additional Qualifications

Individuals must be living and meet all nomination requirements as of March 1 of the year in which they are selected and recognized. Individuals may be nominated in more than one category by separate individuals and on separate nominations forms. Individuals may only be recognized in one award category.

Nomination Form and all supporting materials must be submitted by February 1.
