- Contestants and Eligibility -

Please read carefully!

1. A 4-H member who celebrates their 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th or 19th birthday during the year of the contest is age eligible for this National 4-H competitive event.

2. All contestants must be members of 4-H in the state they are representing during the year in which the National 4-H competitive event is held. An individual may participate in the National 4-H Dairy Cattle Judging Contest one time.

3. The contestants must be certified as complying with all eligibility rules and the team must be certified as the official state entry by electronic verification of the State 4-H Leader. The individual(s) or team(s) may be selected by any procedure the State 4-H Leader believes is appropriate.
4. A 4-H member who is participating in or has completed post-secondary course work in Dairy Cattle Judging or Dairy Cattle Evaluation is not eligible. A 4-H member who has participated in a post-secondary Dairy Cattle Judging Contest is not eligible. 4-H contest participants are prohibited from participating in the post-secondary or intercollegiate contests, including practical and/or linear contests. Violations of the above will result in forfeiture of any awards or recognitions which have been won in the National 4-H Competitive event.

5. Each state may enter four members in the contest with the three top scores making up the state team. The contestant with the lowest overall score from each team will be designated as the alternate, but will be eligible for individual awards. NOTE: Substitutions may be made during the contest registration.

6. Competing in both 4-H and FFA National Events

The National offices of 4-H and FFA have agreed on the following national policy in the interest of consistency between events and between organizations in eligibility for national competition: Participation by the same individual in both a National 4-H and a National FFA competitive event in the same year may occur only when the following is accomplished:

For 4-H: Participation in a National 4-H competitive event will require that all youth participating be a "bona fide" current 4-H participant and must qualify for the national event through an approved state competition or selection process conducted or sanctioned by the representative organization.

For FFA: Participation in a National FFA Career Development event will require that all youth participating be a "bona fide" member of an FFA Chapter and must qualify for the national event through an approved state competition conducted or sanctioned by the representative organization.

7. National Policy on Medical/Accident Insurance

Each state or territory will provide medical/accident coverage for all its 4-H teams participating in all 4-H event as well as medical/accident coverage during travel to and from the events.

- Superintendent -

1. It is the duty of the superintendent and the assistant superintendents of the contest, in cooperation with the contest management committee, to see that all rules and regulations governing the contest are duly carried out. They shall decide all questions which arise in connection with interpretation of rules governing the contest.

2. The Superintendent shall provide a sufficient number of clerks and assistants to help in conducting the contest.

3. The Superintendent shall hold a meeting of the club leaders and coaches in advance of the contest. At this meeting the coaches may discuss any points on the rules or conduct of the contest.

4. The Superintendent shall hold a meeting of the contestants immediately preceding the contest; at which time he/she shall assign the contestants to groups and give such other directions as deemed necessary.

5. The Superintendent and Assistant Superintendents shall not take part in the rating of the contestants.

6. The Superintendent shall have charge of all records and shall have all ratings tabulated, totaled and distributed.

- Clerks and Assistants -

1. The clerks, assistants and attendants shall be under the direction of the Superintendent and shall carry out orders. None of them shall confer with the contestants unless directed by the Superintendent.

2. One assistant (squad leader) shall have charge of each group of Contestants, and shall see to it that each contestant in his/her group remains in his/her presence during the entire time the contest is in progress, except in cases of emergency and then as directed by the Superintendent.

3. One ring leader will be assigned to each ring to direct moving of cattle and collect cards.

- Contestants -

1. No contestant shall be allowed to take any books, notes, or writing paper into the contest except those items provided by the Superintendent. No contestant shall wear pins, badges, or other marks of identification which may reveal his or her identity or that of the state represented. Clipboards will be provided for each contestant by the Superintendent.

2. Contestants are not allowed to bring in or use any cell phone or other electronic devices for communications during the contest. The Superintendent will gather phone numbers for each team coach in case of any emergencies.

3. While the contest is in progress there will be no communications among the contestants, or between a contestant and anyone else, except the squad leader. Coaches around the ringside are requested to hold discussions to a minimum.

4. Any contestant violating any rule shall be barred from the contest.

5. Each contestant shall designate on the placing cards how, in his/her opinion, the animals shall rank. When the final time is called, the placing cards shall be collected by the ring leader and filed with the Superintendent at once.

6. No handling of the animals will be permitted by the contestants.

7. Animals will be judged on breed type.
- Determination of Ratings -

1. Fifty points shall be given for placing in each of the ten rings.

2. Fifty points shall be given for reasons in each of the five rings.

3. Individuals or teams breed ties will be broken on:
   - A. Higher individual/team same breed reasons score
   - B. Higher individual/team overall reasons score
   - C. Higher individual/team overall score
   - D. Lower individual/team total placing score in reasons classes
   - E. Individual/team with the most perfect placing scores
   - F. Coin flip

4. Individual overall placing ties will be broken on:
   - A. Higher individual total reasons score
   - B. Individual with the most perfect placings scores
   - C. Coin flip

5. Individual/Teams overall reasons ties will be broken on:
   - A. Higher individual/team overall score
   - B. Lower individual/team total placing score in reasons classes
   - C. Individual/team with the more perfect placing scores
   - D. Coin flip

6. Individual/Team overall ties will be broken on:
   - A. Higher individual/team total reasons score
   - B. Lower individual/team total placing score in reasons classes
   - C. Individual/team with most perfect placing scores
   - D. Coin flip

7. Records submitted to the superintendent, tabulated and announced shall be final.

- Judges -

1. The classes will be selected by a selection committee other than the official judges.

2. The judges shall place the rings while the contestants are working in the arena. The judges shall enter their placings on a card and file that card with the Superintendent.

3. A computer-calculated 50 point scoring system shall be used to grade each placing combination for each ring.

- Times and Reasons -

1. Contestants will have a total of 15 minutes to place each of the five heifer classes. Oral reasons will be required on five classes of cows. A total of 18 minutes will be given on oral reason classes. Placing cards will be collected after the total allocated time for each class has expired.

2. Ruled notebook paper will be furnished for oral reasons notes.

3. Oral reasons will be given following lunch.

4. Two minutes will be allowed to give oral reasons to judges. No exceptions. The contestants’ placings will not be returned nor will they be allowed the use of notes during oral reasons.

- Rings of Animals -

1. The various rings to be judged shall be selected by competent judges and approved by the Superintendent of the contest.

2. Four animals shall constitute a ring.

3. Five cow classes and five heifer classes shall be selected from the following breeds: Ayrshire, Brown Swiss, Guernsey, Holstein and Jersey.

4. The cattle shall be designated by numbers (1, 2, 3, 4) on the holders of the animals.

5. The animals shall be held in a careful manner, so that all Contestants may have a fair chance to view them. The animals shall be lined up consecutively: 1, 2, 3, 4, right to left, as viewed from the rear. However, it is the responsibility of each contestant to see that his/her placing conforms to the numbers of the animals in any event. The Superintendent shall make every effort to have the animals held in the same positions by the same holders, and in the same relative position for the Judges as for the Contestants.

6. The ring and classes will be shared with the collegiate and post-secondary contestants.
- National Dairy Shrine Banquet -
This is an event you won’t want to miss! The awards banquet will be held in conjunction with World Dairy Expo. The banquet will take place on Thursday, October 4, in the Exhibition Hall, Alliant Energy Center. Reception hour will begin at 5:30 p.m., followed by a banquet at 6:30 p.m. Please call the National Dairy Shrine at 614-878-5333 for tickets and additional information.
